The Genetics Society of America is organized to provide for association and conference among students of heredity and to encourage close relationships between workers in genetics and those in related sciences. GENETICS is its official journal. All persons interested in genetics are eligible for active membership. Application for membership may be made on the form in this journal or obtainable from the address below.

GENETICS ISSN 0016-6731 is published monthly by the Genetics Society of America, 9650 Rockville Pike, Bethesda, Maryland 20814-3998. GENETICS has instituted a tiered pricing structure for 2009. For pricing, consortia sales, or a multi-site quotation, please contact Tracey DePellegrin Connelly, Executive Editor, at td2p@andrew.cmu.edu or (412) 268-1812. Copyright © 2009 by the Genetics Society of America.

Correspondence about membership, nonmember subscriptions, changes of address, missing issues, and other noneditorial matters should be directed to the appropriate address below, according to whether the inquirer is (or would be) a GSA member or nonmember subscriber. Claims for missing issues should be made within 30 days of the date of mailing, which is generally on or near the first of the month; missing issues will be supplied free only if they have been lost in the mail.

For permissions, contact GENETICS at permissions-genetics@andrew.cmu.edu.

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to GENETICS, 9650 Rockville Pike, Bethesda, MD 20814-3998. Periodicals postage paid at Bethesda, Maryland 20814-3998 and additional mailing offices. (Publication No. 215860.)

GSA MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS
- Receive a subscription to GENETICS, the GSA Journal, published monthly
- Pay reduced publication fees in GENETICS
- Pay reduced registration fees for GSA-sponsored meetings
- Receive a subscription to the GSA newsletter, GENETICS
- Receive discounted subscriptions for many publications of interest to geneticists
- Receive discounts on a wide assortment of reagents and antibodies - www.usbio.net
- Include your name in the GSA online membership directory
- Post a free employment ad on the GSA Web site
- Support advocacy for genetics research through the Coalition for Life Sciences - www.jscpp.org
- Vote in GSA elections
- Hold a GSA office
- Influence Society position statements
- Support international development of genetics through GSA’s membership in the International Genetics Federation
- Promote the intellectual heritage of genetics through a variety of educational initiatives and projects
- Enjoy fellowship with nearly 5,000 colleagues and scholars of genetics
