Suppl. Figure 3

Figure S3  Alternative representation of thermotaxis data. Average horizontal positions for animals navigating the linear 0.2°C/cm thermal gradients as described in Figure 9. Worms grown at 15°C were started at 20°C. Solid lines and error bars indicate the mean ±1 SEM of horizontal displacement from the start point over time measured over the trajectories of individual worms.