Figure S3: Detailed comparison with LAMP-LD. The plots shows the comparison for a typical simulated individual using $g = 20$. Each panel denotes an ancestry, on which we plot the local ancestry of the actual (black line), our inference (blue line), and LAMP-LD inference (pink line). Compare to our method, LAMP-LD makes more mistakes on regions of a few hundred SNPs.