PIF1 is degraded in both wild type (top) and phyA (bottom) background under continuous blue light exposure. Four day-old dark-grown seedlings were exposed to continuous blue light (10 µmolm$^{-2}$s$^{-1}$) for the time indicated before harvesting for protein extraction and Western blot analysis.