Fraction of observed substitutions that occur in two classes of sites, ones constrained at the end of the simulation (gray dots) and ones constrained at some point during the simulation (red dashes). Fractions are given for each replicate simulation of each enhancer. Here a constrained site is one where $s_{\text{max}} < -0.004$, or in other words, $Ns < -4$ for all three mutation opportunities at that site.