Figure S13  decay of linkage disequilibrium, as measured using pairwise allelic correlations ($r^2$), with physical distance (bp) across coverage classes as estimated with data including singletons. Red lines give the expected value of $r^2$ following Remington et al. (2001). Intragenic pairs of SNPs were pooled across amplicons.