

Figure S7 Boxplots showing the distribution of phenotypic values for traits (A) dry matter yield (DMY, dt/ha) and (B) dry matter content within the different maize families (families are specified by their specific parental line). Numbers above boxplots show the mean phenotypic values and numbers below boxplots give the number of phenotyped lines per trait and family.