

FIGURE S1.—Differences between results for QTL mapping for response to methamphetamine using simple regression versus a mixed model; these data were generated by subtracting the values shown in Figure 3; positive values indicate a higher LOD score for regression, negative values indicate a higher LOD score for the mixed model.