

Figure S1 Sampling distributions for epistasis and dominance from 50 000 samples of the multivariate normal distribution defined by our data for each univariate wing trait and fitness.

Solid and dashed vertical lines indicate the variance component estimates for epistasis and dominance, respectively.